

LIFE CHANGES

Years passed since our separation at ten

Friends true pledged until time ends

Recognition was slow great the surprise

Business joins pleasure strips all disguise

Smiling soft passages contrast hot noon paradises

Silky laughter enticing innate carnivores

Chrome plated drum music blend harmoniously

With tropical dish, fruit and wine in variety

Privacy needed, eagerly welcomed as located

Expressions to frantic action soon converted

Chortle by two when explosive end sought found

Love plumes desire on fine golden ground

Day to night, friends to lovers thrice around

Moonlight smiles when new diamond fits willingly

One month hence these proud parents to be

Choose panel door and visit church excitedly

Life changes, gloriously to life as family.
